

Student of Centre for Development Studies felicitated

It is a matter of great pleasure that the research student of Centre for Development Studies, University of Allahabad, Kriti Mishra has been felicitated at 52nd Foundation Day (05th March 2022) of Sulabh International by Padma Bhushan Dr. Bindeshwar Pathak for her distinguished contribution on 'Sociology of Sanitation'. The Felicitation / Award Ceremony was held at the Sulabh International, New Delhi. Kriti wrote her doctoral thesis on 'Gender, Sanitation and Development: Issues of Accessibility and Vulnerability with special reference to Allahabad District, Uttar Pradesh' under the supervision of Dr. Sumit Saurabh Srivastava and was awarded prestigious ICSSR Doctoral Fellowship. She has completed her research and was awarded Ph.D. degree in March 2022.

On the occasion of her felicitation by the pioneer in the field of sanitation, Padma Bhushan Dr. Bindeshwar Pathak, all faculty members of the Centre for Development Studies, Dr. Subhash Shukla, Dr. Sumit Saurabh Srivastava, Dr. Angira Sen Sarma and Dr. Pradeep Kumar Sharma congratulated her and wished her all success in her future endeavors. Dr Pradeep Kumar Sharma also said that Kriti Mishra's achievements will continue to inspire other students and research scholars of the Centre for carrying out rigorous empirical research and work for a socially-just society in our country.
