WHAT'S UP ON AU CAMPUS

Letter from the Vice-Chancellor

Dear all,

As summer fades away into rains, the year 2022 is gradually slipping by. Summer changing hues as we heave a heavy sigh to say good bye to the north Indian flavours of mangoes which delighted us on each summer lunch on the dining table. The drizzle and the petrichor together bringing about a rainbow of happiness around the campus of Allahabad University. The smell of the first drops of rain is elevating the joy and happiness around us. It seems we have finally survived the pandemic and are evolving out of it in a changed post covid era. As the University of Allahabad re-opens after the summer vacation, the campus is abuzz with students enjoying the bushy green corners to open their books and study. It is delightful to see them completely entrenched in the lush greenery the campus provides adding more beauty to it is a water fountain where it is common to see birthday cakes being cut at the water front.

The University too is witnessing a lot of change, I thought I must share with all of you the exciting news of 104 new faculty joining the faculty positions in various departments/centres like Centre for Theatre and Film, Centre of Behavioural and Cognitive Sciences, English and Modern European Languages, Sanskrit, Zoology, Psychology, National Centre of Experimental Mineralogy & Petrology and Statistics have brought in a whiff of fresh air on the campus. Departments are reorganising their infrastructure and time tables carry new names of meritorious faculty from all over India and also across the Globe.

More faculty in Physics, Fine Arts, Chemistry, Education will also join the work force soon. Allahabad University is catapulting into having clean green campuses.

In the year 2018 University was rated as a B++ Institution, mostly because of its poor teacher taught ratio. These new appointments will go a long way in enhancing the all-round standard of this University. New courses as per the mandate of the New Education Policy shall commence from the upcoming session i.e., 2023.

We as the University family are committed to more meaningful researches, which must be useful to mankind. The University is also committed to adopting nearby villages and bringing about inclusive growth in manifold ways.

I must share with you that for the first-time provisions of 80 G is available to tax payers, if you desire to give any endowment to the University in the shape of seed money for researches on various diseases like Alzheimer's, Diabetes, Tuberculosis, all types of anemia's, bipolar disorders and a plethora of mental diseases. You may give a grant and also get the benefit in tax payments. Your wish to spend it in the way you desire shall be our utmost wish. You may want to help a poor student or give scholarship to any student, class rooms, department infrastructures, equipment, fibre cable, etc. Please check our website for all information. You have my assurance of your money going in the right hands. A committee has been put in place to monitor and regulate your money.

Friends, perhaps you know that the fee structure of the University had not changed for 110 years. Considering the huge inflation, the country has been facing the cost of living has gone up. The University has not been able to generate enough money to maintain its classrooms and laboratories. The University had been struggling with Rs. 975.00 fee per annum up until now. Slight enhancement in the fee was the need of the hour. Standing in its pristine glory for 134 years, the Allahabad University is the Alimamatar of Pt. Moti Lal Nehru, Pt. Madan Mohan Malviya (Founder of B.H.U.) has had the honour of educating 6 former CJs, President of India, Vice-President of India, an endless stream of IAS officers, Poets like Firaq Gorakhpuri, Harivansh Rai Bacchan, Mahadevi Verma, Surya Kant Tripathi Nirala, many learned Lawyer, Solicitor Generals, Freedom Fighters. A grand old University which is, so rich in its alumnus, needs a lot of hand holding from all of its old students, who have enriched the institution, as they soared to high offices.

Education as we all know is the most powerful weapon to change the world and teachers are on the task to build tomorrows world.

We all must come together to save the institution from perishing. Let us together be the wind beneath its wings once again.

Best always,

(Prof. Sangita Srivastava)
Vice-Chancellor
University of Allahabad

"What's up on AU Campus"

ISSUE NO 02 | 02 AUGUST 2022

Hon'ble VC madam participated in "Akhil Bhartiya Shiksha Samagam" held at Varanasi from 7-9 July. 3-day Education Summit, was organized to discuss, deliberate and share insights on the various aspects of NEP-2020. The Summit highlighted the implementation strategies, best practices, next practices, and success stories of the major thrust areas of NEP-2020.

Takeaways of the conclave :

Hon'ble PM

- Digitalize the University.
- Make students future ready.
- Foster in students the drive to become employers & not employees.
- Make education inclusive.
- Outcome based education system.
- Publish or perish.
- Learning outcomes are more important than paper degree.
- Inculcate soft skills.
- Inculcate nationalism.
- Indian knowledge system should be the key to all education.
- SWAYAM portals like MOOC, DIKSHA should be opted by all Universities.
- NEP aims at catering to the needs of the 21st century and making India a hub for research as well as innovation.

Hon'ble Education Minister

- This is a step towards establishing India as a knowledge-based superpower.
- Universities should have multi-dimensional vision.
- Universities should focus on skill development.
- Skill development should not be an elective subject.
- Universities should be ready for Industrial Revolution 4.0
- Only financial and military resources are not sufficient, knowledge is the base.
- Students should be trained so that they become multi-linguistic power, so as to contribute for global trade and commerce.
- Campus should have water harvesting system.

Vote of Thanks

Thank you.

Prof Pankaj,

Dept of Chemistry,

BHU.

You gifted us all the remuneration you got for the development of the Guest House AU, You said' the hospitality and cleanliness in the guest house has touched you deeply.

Award for excellence

Award for excellence goes to Prof J.K. Pati

Prof Jayanta Kumar Pati was born on 4th June, 1961 in Rourkela, Odisha. He has done BSc (Hons) from Sambalpur University, Odisha and later he pursued M.Tech(App Geology) from IIT Roorkee (Earlier Univ of Roorkee) in 1985. He completed his PhD from Univ of Allahabad in Experimental mineralogy and petrology in 1993.

He has Served the Geological Survey of India, Govt. of India from 1992-2000 as a Geologist (Gazetted Class-1 Officer) and served one Term as a Core Faculty Member of the Training Institute, Geological Survey of India.

He joined UoA as Reader in 2000. In 2008 he was promoted to Professor.

Presently he is Director of National centre of experimental mineralogy & petrology and Professor of Geology.

TTG gneiss rock exposed to the south west of Chitrakut, Bundelkhand craton (Photo: JKP) and the squirrel represents scale here.

The Ministry of Earth Sciences, Government of India has awarded a project worth Rs.70.73 lakhs to Prof. J.K. Pati, Department of Earth and Planetary Sciences, Nehru Science Centre, University of Allahabad to undertake the following study and complete in next three years.

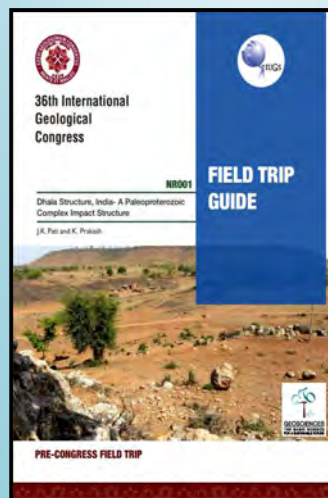

The TTG (tonalite–trondhjemite–granodiorite) is a rock, predominantly older than 2500 million years and can be as old as 4000 million years or more. Since the formation of the Earth (~4500 million years), the earliest dated rocks are largely believed to be devoid of life and comprising TTG gneiss (a layered/banded rock). The TTG is considered as the oldest typical juvenile portion of the continents and marks the transition from a dominantly mafic (magnesium-iron- rich) to a more felsic crust in the Earth's early history.

These are relatively rare rocks as the as early Earth underwent several recycling processes. In India, other than Singhbhum craton, these rocks are found only in Bundelkhand and Dharwar (Karnataka State) cratons. Prof Pati and his group have already reported rocks as old as 3560 million years from the Bundelkhand craton and the present project is to look for a Hadean (age  $\geq 4000$  million years) crust. Since gold, molybdenum, iron, uranium and platinum mineralization are dominantly associated with the rocks of Early Earth.

Research Pursuits

Prof Pati is a hard-core researcher. Presently his area of interests revolves around petrological study of mafic-ultramafic rocks of Madaura area, Lalitpur district, U.P. and their PGE potential; mineralogy and petrology of high-grade BIF and some restites occurring within Bundelkhand Granitoid Complex; He has edited Ms. for the Meteoritics and Planetary Sciences, USA, the Bull. Geol. Soc. America, USA, the Geological Magazine, Cambridge University Press, Journal of Geology, Journal Asian Earth Sciences. He is Editor, Society for Earth Scientists, India. Editor, Malaysian Journal of Geosciences, and many others.

- Proud moment for UoA, Prof Pati with his dedication and hard work has put Dhala structure in the World Map of the Terrestrial Impact Craters!
- Govt. of India published Dhala Field Guide Book (2020) authored by Prof Pati, which is a deferred publication in 2022 due to COVID-19.

Prof Pati has been an invited speaker in International conferences like Yokohama National University, Yokohama, Japan, University of Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa, Nancy, France, Leibniz Institute, Humboldt University, Berlin, Germany, Department of National Heritage, Govt. of Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur, Casablanca, Morocco, Denver, USA, Vredefort Dome, South Africa; Meteoritical Society Meeting, Greenwich, London, U.K., etc.

Hobbies

Prof Pati is a hard-core researcher, and is also a nature lover. His hobbies include : Watercolor Painting, Collage Making, Carving, Gardening Mostly Exotic plants - (Adeniums, Sansevierias, Cacti and Bonsai plants etc.), Showing Dogs (mostly imported breeds), photography and writing poems etc. He has a huge collection of plants!

Some glimpses from Prof Pati's personal garden(Officer's Colony UoA):

He grows fruits in his garden and birds get the first priority to enjoy the fruits of labour! He has some rain lilies, Sansevierias Snake Plants; and exotic hybrids. Some Cacti, Adenium Arabicum and many exotic hybrids. He is a dog lover.
