Notice

It has come to the notice of the Department that some applicants seeking admission to the Part-Time / Regular Ph.D. Programme have already taken admission in other universities, institutions, or colleges (including the University of Allahabad and its affiliated colleges), and are still applying for admission in this Department based on PhD Admission Rules.

To maintain transparency, academic integrity, and compliance with university regulations, the following instructions are issued with immediate effect:

- No candidate who is already admitted to any course/programme in any university or institution in India (including the University of Allahabad or its affiliated colleges) shall be allowed to take admission in the Department of Political Science for the Ph.D. Programme.
- If a candidate has already been admitted elsewhere and still wishes to seek Ph.D. admission in this Department, he/she must compulsorily produce an official Admission Cancellation Certificate from the institution where he/she is presently enrolled.
- In the absence of an Admission Cancellation Certificate, the candidate's application shall be summarily rejected.
- If it is later found that a candidate has concealed his/her admission status or has not cancelled existing admission before seeking admission here, strict action will be taken, including cancellation of candidature/admission and reporting the matter to the appropriate authorities.
- This order is issued in the interest of fair, transparent, and rule-based admission processes and must be strictly adhered to by all applicants.
