Department of Law a Brief History:

With the establishment of the High Court at Allahabad in 1866, need for advocates was felt for practicing in the High Court and the District Courts. The minimum qualification to become an advocate was Barrister from England or Bachelor of Laws degree after graduation from Calcutta University. As such teaching of Laws was commenced in Muir Central College of Allahabad, affiliated to Calcutta University (estab.1857) on December 31st 1872 with 39 students in English Section and 10 in Urdu Section. When in 1887 Allahabad University was established as teaching-cum-affiliating University, the Law Department also obtained a raised stature accordingly. Hon'ble Justice D. Straight was appointed the first President of Law Department in 1890. By an order of the Government in Council of United Provinces, the Department of Legal Studies became a separate single department /Faculty of the University along with the Faculties of Arts, Sciences and Commerce in the Muir College campus of the University. Under the Indian University Act of 1904, the posts of Professor, Reader and Lecturer were recognized for the University. The Law Department functioned in Muir College from 1872 onwards till the new building of immense architectural beauty was constructed for the Law Faculty around 1910, adjacent to Senate on the northern side by the donations provided by the Oudh Bar Association. However, till 1921 the Law Department functioned with advocates as Part-time teachers holding all the three cadres. In 1921, When the University was re-organized as a residential University by an Act of the United Province of British India Professor Weir, a distinguished jurist, became first Head of Law Department. In 1936 two full time posts of Reader were created on which Prof. K.K. Bhattacharya, LL.M. (London) and Prof. K.R.R. Shastri, ML (Madras) were appointed. Professor K.K. Bhattacharya became first fulltime Professor in Law department in 1949.

On account of shortage of accommodation there was difficulty in holding of tutorials in LL.B classes and in the expansion of the Law Library. So the Law Department was shifted to the new building which was constructed by UGC grants in the Chatham Lines Campus of which Hon'ble Mr. A. K. Sen, the then Law Minister of India, had laid the foundation stone in 1965. The transfer of Law Department to the new building was completed in early 1980s. Recently in 2016 Law Faculty has been provided a new building adjacent to the existing one of which First Phase of Construction is almost complete.

There had been intimate relationship between the High Court and the Department when part-time Professor and Part-time Reader were allowed to be appointed from High Court Bar. Shri A. P. Dube, Bar- at Law, an eminent advocate was the last part-time Professor and Head. In 1949, Professor K. K. Bhattacharya became the first full-time Professor and Head of the Law Department. The law Department continued to have four posts of part-time Lecturers. It is notable that Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru, Pandit Moti Lal Nehru, Sir Sundar Lal and Dr. Kailash Nath Katju have been part-time teachers in the Law Department. Before they became Judges, Justice Iqbal Ahmad, Justice Wali Ullah, Justice P.N. Sapru, Justice M.H. Beg & Justice M.N. Shukla worked as a part-time teachers with the Law Department. Two Judges of High Court have consistently been members, each of Board of Studies and Faculty Board of Law.

The Law Department has the honour of producing legal personalities which have had their role not only in the field of Law but also in the entire life of the nation. A few names like Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru. Dr. Kailash Nath Katju and Justice Wali Ullah who had obtained LL.D from the Law Department as regular candidates may be mentioned. Chief Justice Das of the Supreme Court of India had been awarded LL.D (Honours) in 1960. Prof. K. K. Bhattacharya. Dean & Head of Law Department was nominated as MP by the President of India to the Federal unicameral Parliament of India under the Constitution of India in 1950.
